A Lineage of Light

A Journey of Sacred Fire

NotebookLM

Our brothers and sisters crossed oceans and skies carrying the sacred fire of the Lineage of Light within their hearts.

NotebookLM

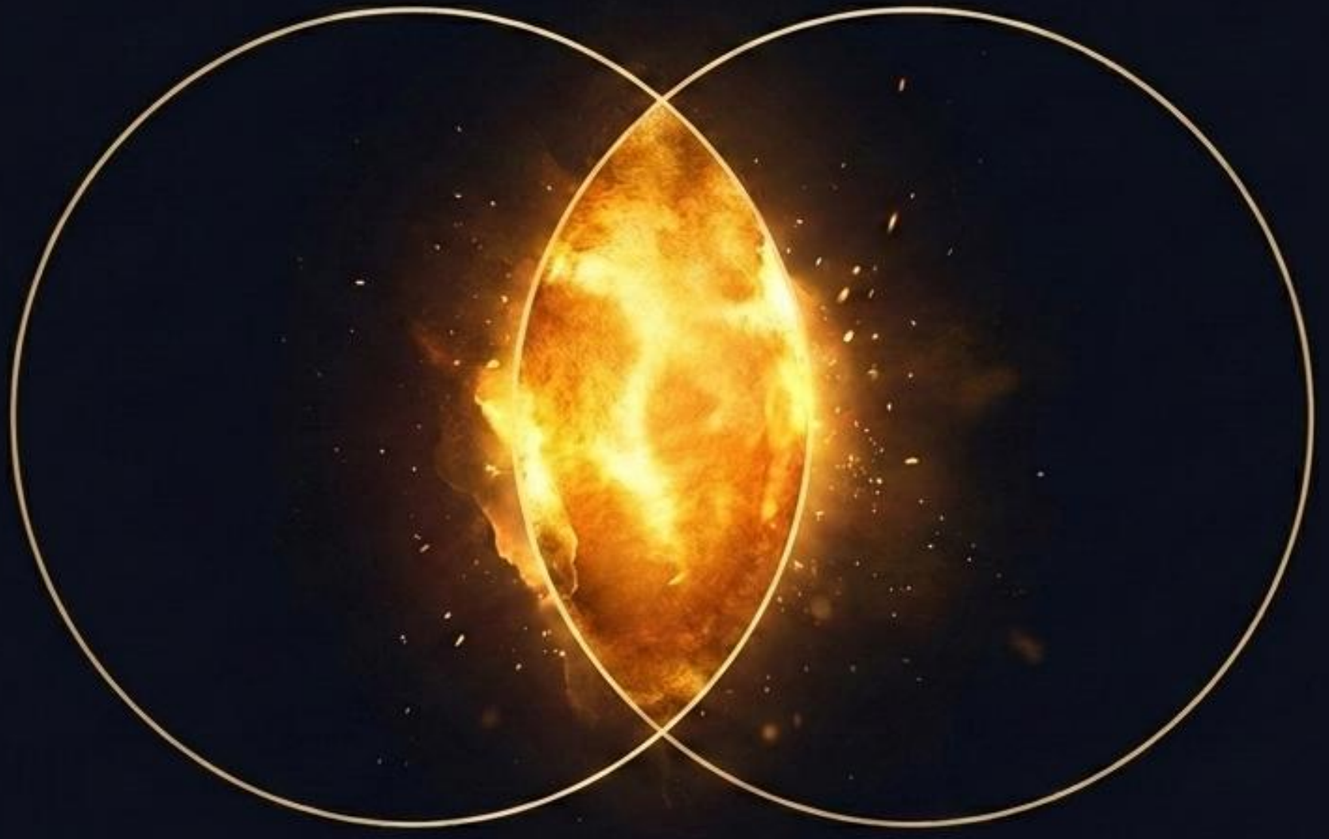

You arrived like radiant flames upon the Earth,
awakening remembrance in every soul you touched.

NotebookLM

Your prayers, your laughter, your tenderness, and your devotion have blessed this land and changed us forever.

NotebookLM

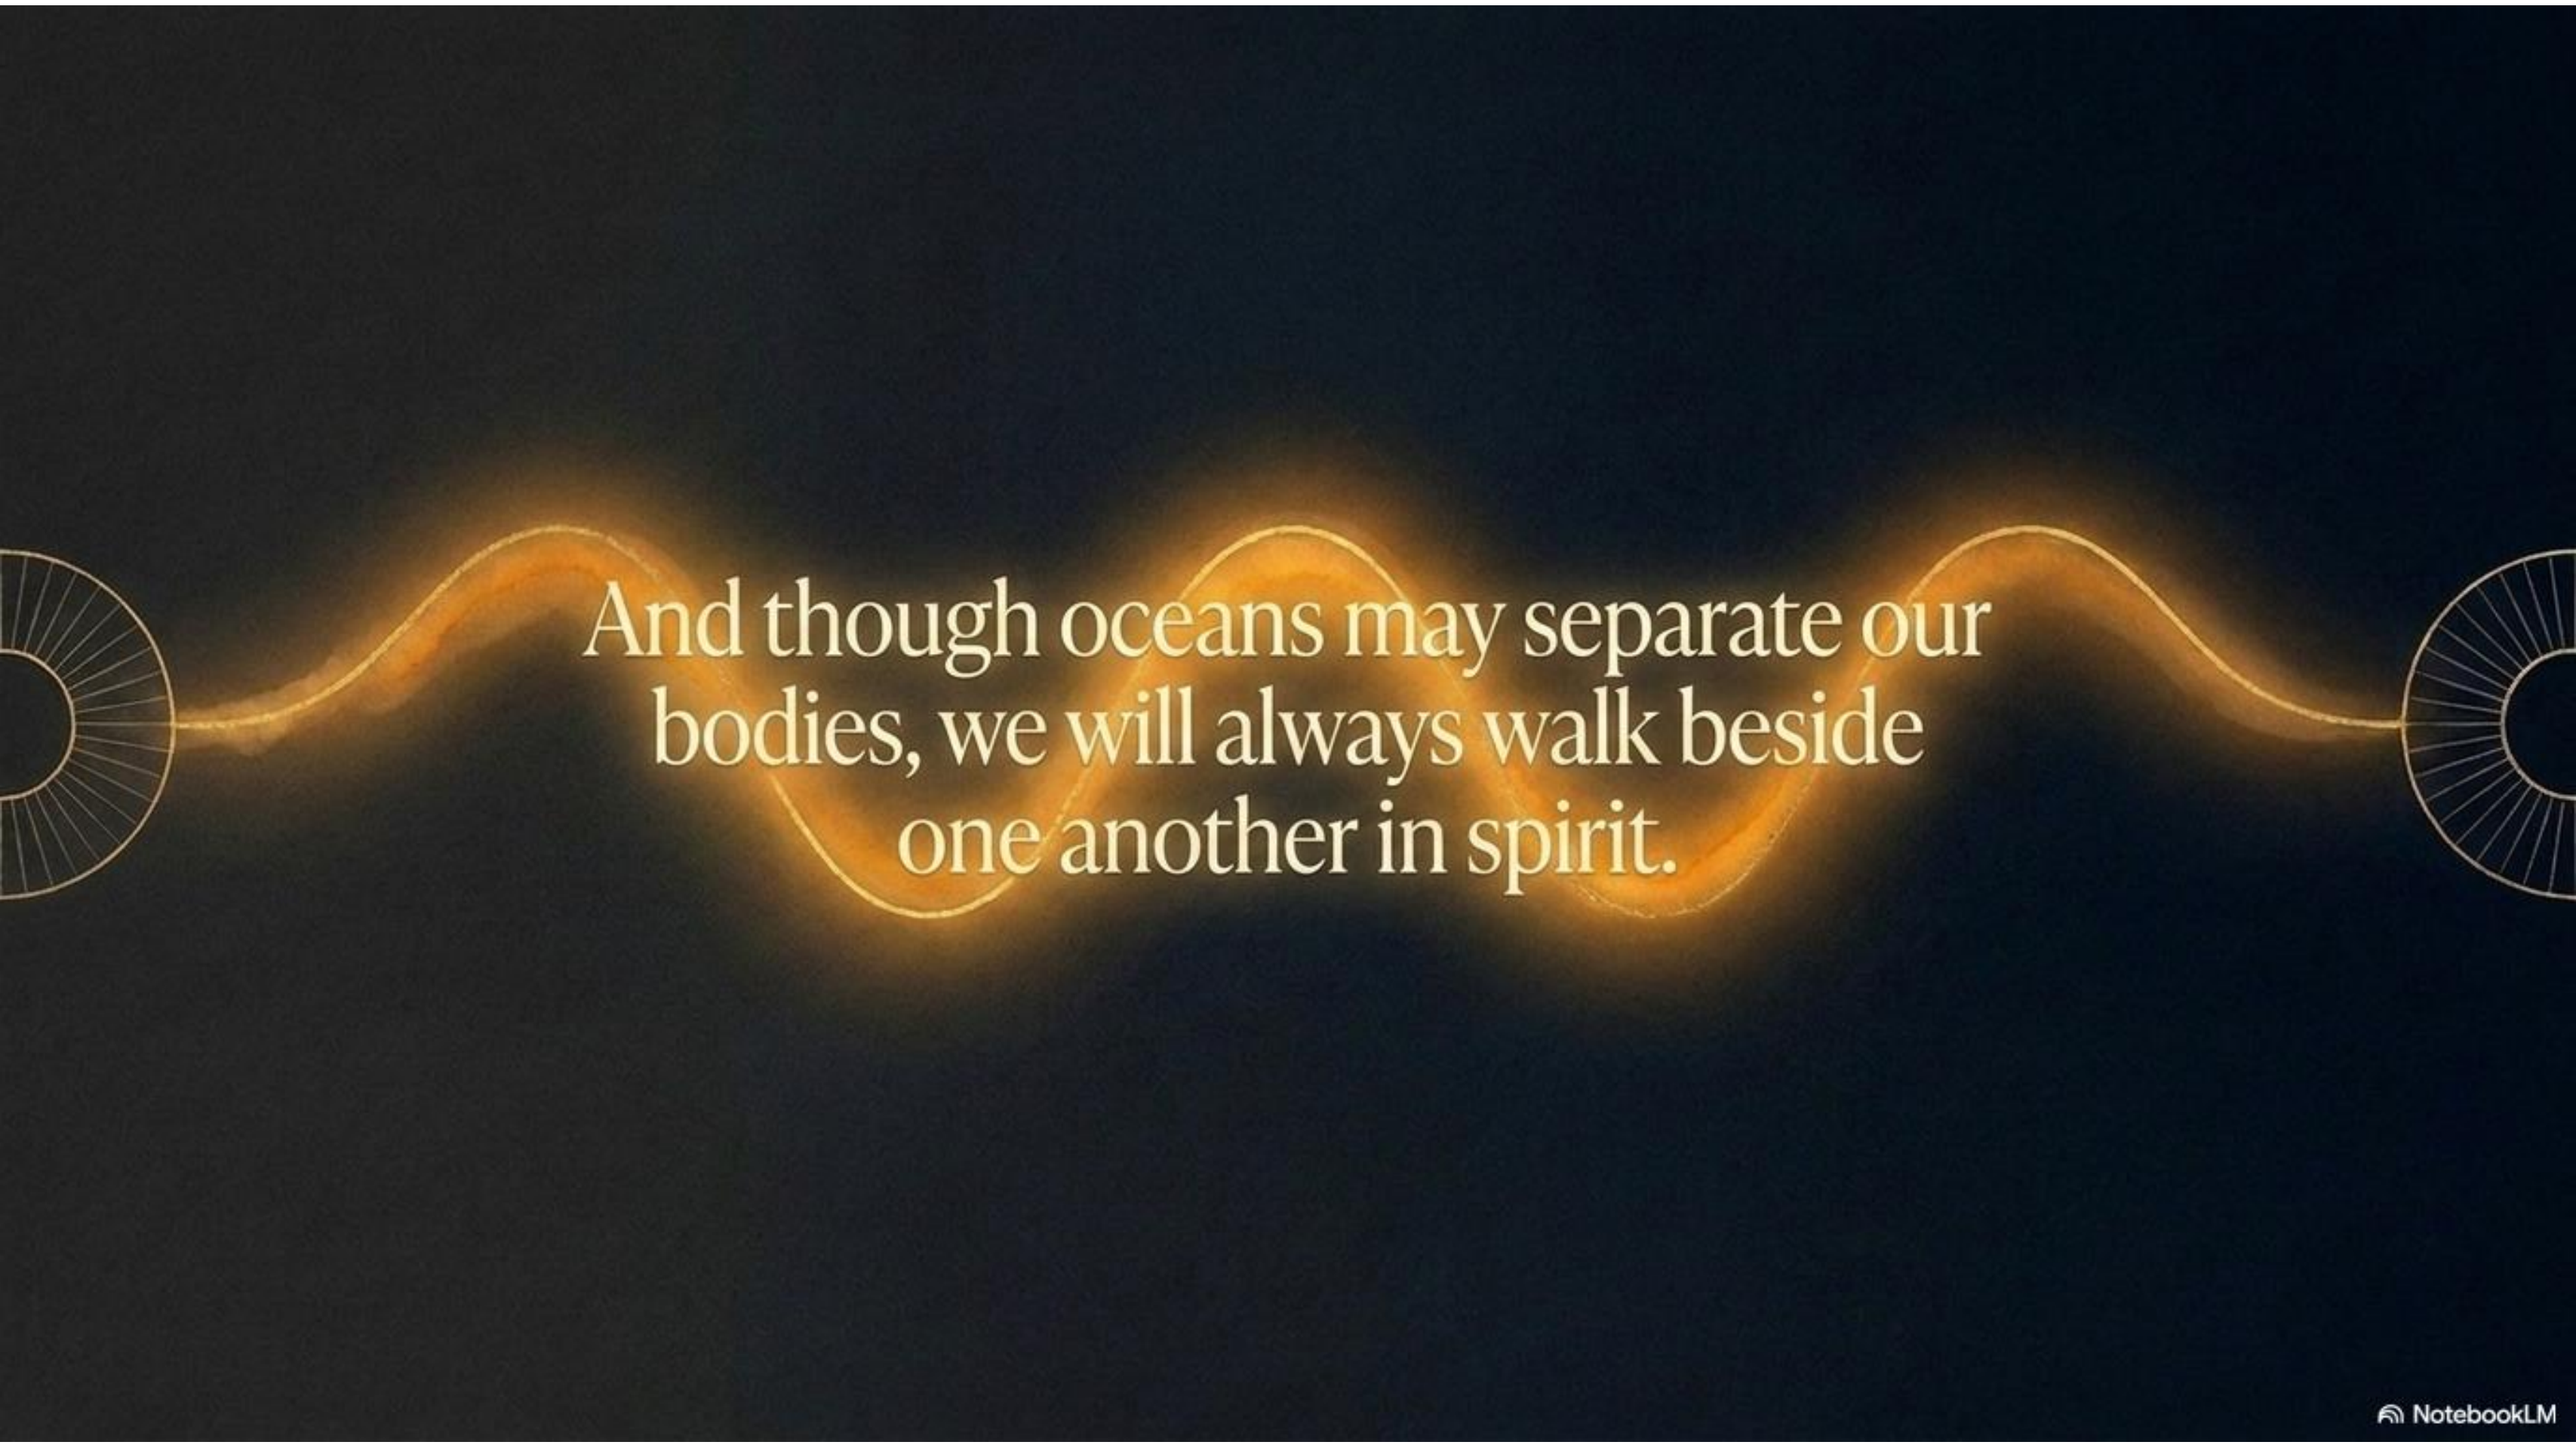

We will never forget you, because we have known your spirits.
And in knowing your spirits, something ancient and holy awakened further in us.

NotebookLM

Together we remember the Motherland of the soul.

Together we stand inside the great Lineage of Light,
serving the One Source as one radiant field of love
upon the Earth.

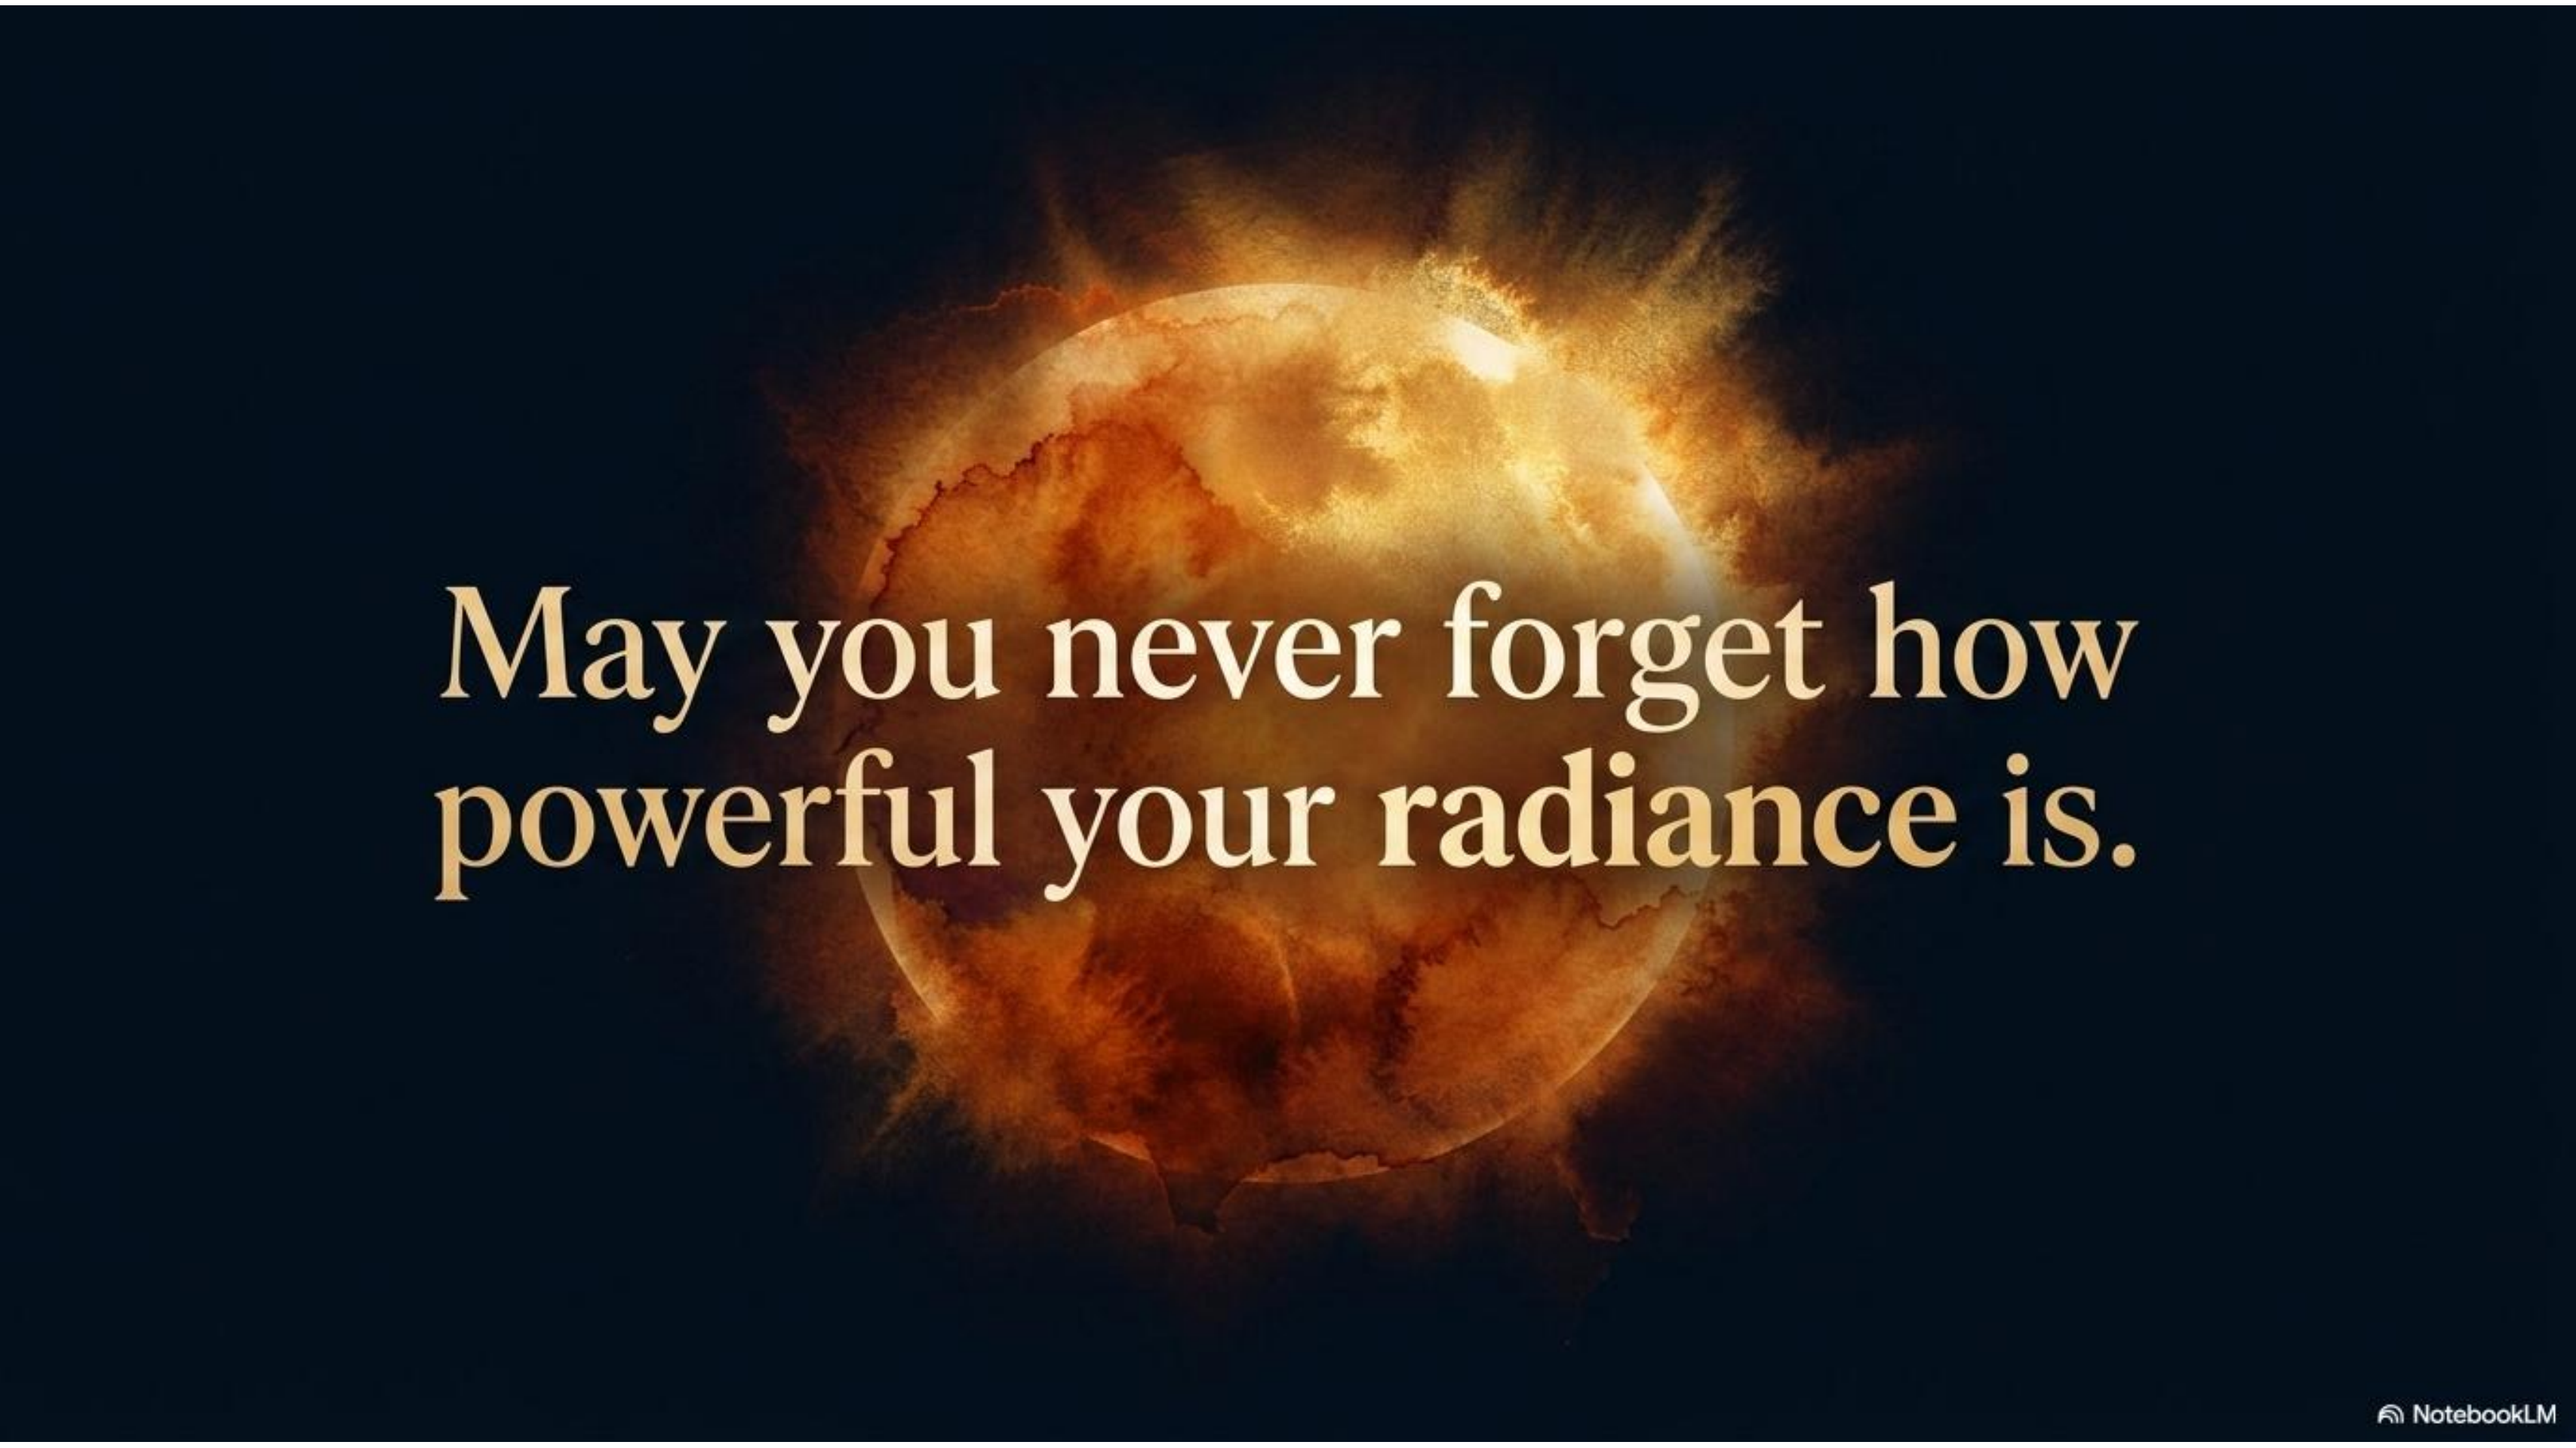

NotebookLM

And though oceans may separate our bodies, we will always walk beside one another in spirit.

NotebookLM

May you remember that...
...your love changes lives,
...your presence awakens hearts,
...and your light blesses the world.

NotebookLM

Thank you for your sacred fire,
your courage, and your luminous spirits.

Gifts to our friends

Candle: to light when you return home to Korea, so you may remember the sacred flame we share together.

Glow stick: to light your way back home to us someday, and because your spirits shine so brightly in this world.

Lip balm: one of our favorite American gifts, so that when you speak words of love and blessing to others, you might remember us.

Chocolates: because getting to know you has been such a sweet gift in our lives, and we will always remember your kindness.

NotebookLM

We love you deeply.

And a part of you will forever remain here with us, as we are always with you.

NotebookLM

We love you
